at 0400 on Friday 24 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and becoming brighter.

Today:
It will start rather grey and overcast with patchy light rain or drizzle. However, mainly dry and skies should brighten, a few warm sunny breaks possible in the more sheltered east. Breezy, strong winds at times along the north coast. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
It will be mainly cloudy this evening and overnight with a little light rain and drizzle at times. Mild and breezy. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Saturday:
Any patchy light rain and drizzle soon dying out to leave a mainly dry day with some bright or sunny spells developing. Breezy and feeling warm in any sunshine. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Outbreaks of heavy rain on Sunday, although a dry and bright morning possible in the east. Breezy, strong southerly winds around the coast. Then bright with scattered showers.
